

Guidelines

Elite Foal Auction Online

Before the Auction

The foals are presented with videos and photos on swbuction.swb.org and on the SWB social media channels. They will also be available for viewing online in the SWB information booth and in the auction catalog available at SWB Equestrian Weeks.

The foals are nominated for this event by the SWB selection committee; Johan Ifverson, Rick Jespers and Boudewijn Schepers as particularly promising young prospects for the future as elite sport horses.

The foals will go through a vet check before the auction. The vet check is done no earlier than two weeks before the foals/horses are published on the site swbuction.swb.org and the result will be published on each foal's auction page as well as at the SwedeHorse auction office. Please observe that there may be findings noted on the health certificate. SWB and Agria Djurförsäkring (Agria Animal Insurance) recommend that interested parties be sure to view the certificates before the auction.

Auction office and foal inspection

All foals are available for inspection at the Seller's premises during the period in which the foal is presented on the auction site. Anyone wishing to inspect a foal before the auction day must contact the SwedeHorse auction office to book an appointment.

It is also possible to contact Johan Ifverson, Rick Jespers or Boudewijn Schepers for further information about the foals.

Registration and bidding online

All bidding takes place online at swbuction.swb.org. As a bidder, you must register on the site and be approved by SWB before you can place a bid. Please note that the approval process may take some time, so make sure to register in advance of the auction closing.

Swbuction.swb.org is the only site from where you can place a bid.

Bidding

The bidding starts on Wednesday, October 1st and ends on Saturday, October 4th, beginning at 7:00 pm. The foals are auctioned in catalog order, and bidding closes at the time stated on each foal's auction page. If a bid is placed just before closing time, the bidding will automatically be extended by 3 minutes. The bidding ends when no new bid has been submitted within the extended timeframe.

By placing a bid, you also accept the terms and conditions of the SWB Elite Foal Auction Online 2025.

Insurance in partnership with Agria Animal Insurance
